

ONE DAY WORKSHOP

Disruption

23rd February 2009

North West

Theme

The disrupting of a permanent placement, be it adoption or fostering, is a devastating life event for children, which may have long-term consequences for their emotional welfare and life chances. It is also a distressing experience for those children's carers, former carers and all those professionals who had worked to bring about the placement, and sustain it.

This workshop will examine

- theory and research around disruption
- building in protectors against disruption when making placements
- helping children when disruptions happen
- using disruption meetings to learn lessons and aid healing

Who should attend

Children's social workers,
Independent Reviewing Officers,
Family placement workers,
Approved adopters,
Foster carers and
Panel members.
