

TWO DAY WORKSHOP

Assessing Foster Carers and Adopters

26th & 27th February 2009

Birmingham

Theme

Sound and relevant assessment is the vital basis for successful family placement of looked after children. This workshop will explore different models of assessment, the nature of the assessment relationship we create, and the process. Participants will identify ways of gathering evidence to demonstrate competence and consider the presentation of assessments to panels now that applicants frequently attend. This course will help participants and their agencies meet the national minimum standards.

Who should attend

All social workers who assess prospective carers, in local authorities, voluntary adoption agencies, or independent fostering provider settings.
