

TWO ONE DAY WORKSHOPS

Kinship Care

Thursday 24 January 2008, London
Thursday 27 November 2008, London

Theme

A significant percentage of looked after children are placed with family and friends carers. This training day will explore the role of family and friends who provide care for children. Participants will examine models of assessments, supervision of relative and friend foster carers, and panel procedures. There will also be an opportunity to look at common issues raised in family and friends placements

Aims

- To reflect on current legislation and practice
- To identify current dilemmas in the assessment supervision and support of family and friend carers
- To consider the implications for departmental policy and procedures
- To provide an opportunity to exchange information and ideas between different agencies.

Who should attend

Social workers and team managers from child care, family placement and kinship care teams.

18 places available

The format of this workshop will strongly emphasise participative learning – small group work, quizzes, and case studies – as well as formal teaching.
