

TWO ONE DAY WORKSHOPS

Supervision of foster carers

Thursday 13 March 2008, London
Thursday 2 October 2008, London

Theme

The role of the 'Supervising Social Worker' under the Fostering Regulations and National Minimum Standards 2002 has become more defined and complex, involving managerial, educative and support functions.

This workshop will provide an opportunity for family placement workers to review their role and responsibilities in relation to foster carers, and consider the development of best practice with colleagues from other agencies.
